SECTION B BOYS BATTLE TO A TIE

Rawlings for Bankers Holds Parkview to One Hit, but Can't Win.

The American Security and Trust team, champions of the Bankers' League, and the strong Parkview outfit battled seven innings yesterday afternoon at the Capital City Park to a tie. Score, 2 to 2. Umpire Betts had to call the game at the close of the seventh on account of the heavy downpour of rain.

Rawlings, the lad that brought "Peet's Pets" to the front, and who captured the flag for Business High in the Interhigh School championship games, twirled a masterly ball for the money men. He had the heavy hitting opponents at his mercy throughout the game, being only touched up for one hit, and that was a scratch. Had Rawlings been supported properly he would have walked away with the battle.

O'Neill scored. In the seventh neither O' team could hit nor score, and as every body was getting soaked to the skin the Umpire Betts called "Game!"

Although Hillery's curves and shoots fooled four more batters than Rawlings and he passed one less in wildness, his opponents found him easy when he needed hits to count. Hillery's delivery allowed five men to connect safely.

The work of Slab behind the plate for the Parkview and the classy fielding of Johnson in center field for the bankers and the batting of West were the features of the game. The score:

GREAT TROTTERS TO MEET IN BIG RACE

BUFFALO, N. Y., August 21.—Arrangements were completed here last night for a match race between the sensational horse Uhlan, with a record of tiful mare Hamburg Belle, with a market value of 202½. Not since the day of the marriage between Crescendo and The Abbot has there been so much trotting world so stirred, for it is almost universally conceded that this one horse has reached the limit of his powers, and the present generation will see the long anticipated two-minute trotter in a very actual contest.

That the two would meet eventually was no one doubted, but it was believed that the two would not come until the autumn at Lexington. The recent brilliant performances of both, however, acted as a stimulant to their owners, and with them willing and with the two tracks biddingly the rest was comparatively easy. I have heard that they met Wednesday night, and that they were both in the pink on the track. But I have not been thousand-five-hundred-dollar purse and probable side bet of $5,000. They are trot bet two in three heats.

With the bidding for the event, the rejuvenated Readville, now owned by Andy Welch, and the ambitious young one in Ohio, Secretary Deltrich of the latter track acted throughout the negotiations for John Madden, owner of the famous "Big Boy" while Charles Sanderson, of Salem, Mass., owner of Uhlman, was present in person.

The matter of the side bet was left open until the day of the race. If entered to suit all, probably will be a 50-50 proposition, thus insuring a great charity. In addition to this race there will be other events.

While the match itself is of tremendous

Cleveland, for the reason that it necessarily will detract from the Readville meeting, which has a valuable and costly program, and which feels it is entitled to every bit of patronage it can get.

Hamburg Belle is already at the Cleveland track. Hamburg Belle has never been beaten, and Uhlman suffered his only defeat in the great American trotting handicap at Readville last year, being beaten by Allen Winter, with a generous allowance. Uhlman has defeated fields this year with consummate ease and has never been pressed.

The suburbanites got their second run of the game in the fifth session. O'Neill drew a pass and went to second on the "bag" play. The defense was in a three-man cove and moved both along on his sacrifice. Maddox hit to Brooks and was thrown out at first; during the play O'Neill scored. In the seventh inning the team could hit nor score, and as every play was getting into the strike zone, Umpire McCall called "Game".

At the start of the battle the American Security and Trust squad had but nine men, and should one of these have been injured or put out of the game the used time the grounds were in dand condition, with the exception of center field.

Although Hillery's curves and shooting fooled four more batters than Tawling and he passed one less in wildness, his opponents found him easy when he needed hits to count. Hillery's deliveries allowed five men to connect safely, one of whom got two.

The work of Slab behind the plate for the first time and the clay digging of Johnson in center field for the bankers and the batting of West were the features of the game. The score:

COLE SURPRISES

ON BOSTON LINKS

MANCHESTER, Mass., August 21.—Play in the second round of the tournament at the Essex Country Club yesterday developed many surprises. The match between C. Zubelin and J. H. Kedian was one of the most interesting of the day, and when Zubelin defeated Kedian 8 up and 6 to play the result was most unexpected. In the afternoon Zubelin met Paul Moore, and in a close match maintained his supremacy by 1 up. Another interesting match was between H. Butler and A. C. Lockwood, in which veteran 2 up and 1 to play.

 H. H. Wilder came through two hard matches. In the morning he put out
 L. White of Brae Burn, 1 up, 20 holes and this afternoon defeated D. V. Suthphin, a western amateur, 1 up. The

POLAND SPRINGS GOLF.
 Chick Has Easy Time Winning

POLAND SPRING, Me., August 21.—William C. Chick, the former Harvard golf player and twice winner of the Ives cup tournament, won the cup yesterday by defeating Hiram Ricker, Jr., in a thirty-six hole match, by a score of 7 up. At no time after the first nine holes was the contest in doubt. Ricker, who came through to the finals in brilliant style, took a slump going out, and was never able to recover himself. Ives, on the other hand, was in luck, but his approaches and putting were wobbly. He drove on the green 250 yards from the tee in the third round, and the morning, getting a 39 and 38, which would have established a new amateur record for the course had he holed out on the sixth. Each time he lost it. The score by holes:

Morning play—Chick: Out—5 5 4 5 5 3 4 4—36.
In—4 5 5 3 4 5 4—36.
Afternoon play: Out—4 5 6 6 5 4 4 4—41.
